

The Pallium Palliative Pocketbook Errata

Page # Location	Printed in Pallium Palliative Pocketbook 2 nd Edition Sections that need correction are highlighted in yellow	Correction to be done (highlighted in green)
12-19 Section on Escitalopram (Cipralex®)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Faster acting compared to citalopram, with a good side effect profile. Take at night (as it provides a relaxing effect). Provides both antidepressant and anxiolytic effects. Start dose: 5 mg HS orally. May increase dose after 5 to 7 days. Usual effective dose is 10 mg-15 mg. Maximum dose is 20 mg per day. (available in 10 mg and 20 mg tablets) Starting does is usually 37.5mg OD (may be increased after 7 days to 75mg). Require at least 150mg per day for therapeutic effect. Usual does is 150mg-225mg per day. Maximum does is 375mg/day. 	Delete the strikethrough text: Starting does is usually 37.5mg OD (may be increased after 7 days to 75mg). Require at least 150mg per day for therapeutic effect. Usual does is 150mg-225mg per day. Maximum does is 375mg/day.